

SURCO 2.7[®]

Tasting notes: ruby colored with light gamet flashes; varietal aromas skewed slightly towards pepper and an outstanding mixture of red fruits with a touch of black fruits. Its taste, medium bodied and tannins, smooth and ripe. A wine with character, complex yet balanced and easy to drink.

Technical information

Ensenada's regional wine cellar

Vineyards: Llano Colorado

Geographical area: Valle de San Vicente,
Baja California, Mexico

Vintage: 2017

Grape variety: Cabernet Sauvignon

Aging: 12 months in American oak barrel and refined in bottle for 12 additional months

Alcohol level: 13.5%

Bottle capacity: 750 ml

Recommended temperature to serve:
between 14 and 16°C

