

CORDEL

Invisible and fundamental tool. Neither old nor obsolete. Simply simple, like what we take for granted. The grape presser's sustenance, who, at an unbreakable pace, steps over the grapes that will soon become wine. Direct witness of centuries of harvesting. Cord of the winery, here your recognition.

AGING RED WINE

Vintage: 2021

Wine Blend: Malbec 70%, Syrah 30%

Grapes Origin: San Luis Potosí, México. 1840 masl

Harvest: 2nd week of August

Bottles Produced: 4,167

TASTING NOTES

Appearance: Medium-deep color with ruby tones. Light brick-colored rim.

Bouquet: Aromatically expressive. Mainly ripe red fruits. Also species such as cinnamon, clove and pepper.

Taste: Medium bodied, dry and fresh. Good volume on the palate. Moderate and soft tannins. Reminds to ripe red fruits and slightly jamaica flower.

CORDEL is a structured and balanced wine. The blend of these two varieties results in a wine with power and personality but at the same time, easy to drink.
